The following are proposed bylaws changes to be voted on by the membership during the Business Meeting of the Annual RMACRAO Meeting in 2013, Fort Collins, Colorado.

1. Sentence addition to Section 2.01 of the bylaws—“Membership will be defined as in Article IV of the Articles of Incorporation of the Association. Any member institution ...”

2. Amend first paragraph of Article IV of the Articles of Incorporation—“The Association shall have three classes of membership primarily from Colorado, New Mexico, and Wyoming. ...”

3. Amend Article IV Section A of the Articles of Incorporation—“Institutional membership shall be available primarily to non-profit higher education institutions located primarily in the States of Colorado, New Mexico and Wyoming that meet the qualifications contained herein. Institutional members must be collegiate-level, degree granting, and accredited by an association approved by the Commission on Recognition of Post Secondary Accreditation (“COPRACORPA”). Each institutional member receives the right to vote as determined by the Bylaws. ...”

4. Amend Article IV Section B of the Articles of Incorporation—“Associate Professional membership shall be open to organizations and entities not eligible for institutional membership, but whose professional duties are related to the purposes of the Association. It is understood that Associate Professional membership does not carry neither the right to vote nor the right to serve as an elected officer of the Association. Associate Professional membership is not a statement of accreditation by the Association. Associate Professional membership does not infer or guarantee transferability of credit to any of the members’ institutions, or to other institutions outside the Association. Associate Professional members shall designate individual members from their offices of admissions, registration, records, or other offices organizations interested in the Association’s activities.

5. Amend the fourth paragraph of Section 5.02 (a) of the bylaws—“...No ballots will be accepted over the phone, or accepted after 12 midnight 11:59 p.m. of the deadline date.
